

EMPEROR OF JAPAN RECEIVES ADMIRALS.

Reception at Palace in Tokio Is Radical Departure from Court Precedents and Most Brilliant Function Ever Witnessed There.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.)

TOKIO, Oct. 20.—The third day of the American occupation of Japan brought about every description of entertainment for the officers and men of the Atlantic fleet and the visiting business men from the Pacific Coast, from an audience and luncheon with royalty to a baseball game between nine from the fleet and Keio University. Luncheons, garden parties, Japanese dinners commencing early, European dinners beginning later, and these parties all involving the careful distribution of invitations because occurring in half a dozen places at the same time, kept the American guests of the Japanese nation busy.

For the present Tokyo is the center of attraction, many officers and about 600 men visiting this city daily, but Yokohama is filled with blue-jackets, who are offered every form of entertainment, while large numbers of others are visiting near-by points of interest by means of special trains.

Up to the present time perfect order has prevailed among the sailors on shore liberty, despite their long tour of sea duty. In every case where there has been a possibility of trouble the Japanese have met the situation with utmost courtesy, avoiding any friction.

Wednesday's programme will bring together the big gathering of invited guests, both residents of this city and visiting Americans, that has occurred during the reception, when 2000 persons assemble as guests of Admiral Togo at a garden party. The affair will be held at Shinjuku Imperial Garden.

In the evening Premier Katsura will entertain the American officers at dinner, and following this will come the social event of the week's entertainment, a grand ball.

Other events of the day will be luncheons given by Baron Terauchi, Baron Matsui and a Japanese dinner at which Baron Iwasaki will be the host. There will also be many other forms of entertainment which completely fill the day.

CONQUERING HEROES.

There is no diminution in the popular enthusiasm with which the Americans are received on the streets and wherever the carriers bearing the American officers appear the streets are lined with cheering masses of Japanese.

It is "banan" everywhere for the officers and men of the fleet and the most popular cry among the children of Japan is:

"Three cheers for America."

The baseball game which resulted in a victory for the Keio team, after fifteen innings had been played. The decision of the Japanese umpire was questionable but it was good enough to be accepted by the boys of the fleet.

The most significant event of the visit of the American fleet took place when Rear-Admiral Sperry, flag officer and the captain and commanders of the sixteen battleships were presented to the Emperor and Empress under circumstances evidencing a radical departure from all court precedents in order to do favor to the Americans. That it was the most brilliant function that the palace has ever known is vouched for by those who have been attached to the court of the Emperor of Japan for many years.

EMPEROR'S MESSAGE.

The Emperor assumed a most cordial manner and the Empress shook hands with every officer.

To the message from President Roosevelt delivered by Admiral Sperry the Emperor responded as follows:

"Admiral Sperry, it affords me a special pleasure to welcome your party as the representatives of the American navy and to receive through you, from your respected President, his very friendly message. It is my request that you assure the President of the United States that I most sincerely appreciate and most cordially reciprocate his sentiments of friendship and good will."

"It is to me a source of profound satisfaction that the most cordial relations exist between Japan and the United States and my thanks are due the President for affording my subjects by your visit the opportunity to give evidence of their sincere attachment for your countrymen."

"I also wish you to convey to the President this message:

"The historic relations, the good understanding and the genuine friendship of the United States I count as a valued heritage of my reign and it shall be in the policy of my reign to maintain in the past my constant aim and desire to weld the cause of unity uniting the two countries in indissoluble bonds of good neighborliness and perfect accord."

"I trust the same success that has so far attended your voyage may still be with you to the end."

The exchange of messages between President Roosevelt and the Emperor was evidently planned as a surprise. When the President's message was received, its evident cordial tone was at once accepted as the highest official endorsement of the peaceful mission and friendly spirit with which the fleet left the Atlantic and is now visiting Japan, hence the unusual tone of the Emperor's reply, which has been published here, was understood immediately as indicating that the entente between America and Japan, although unwritten, was most sincere and real.

IMPRESSIVE PROCESSION.

The procession of carriages conveying the officers of the fleet to the palace, through the streets, lined with cheering multitudes, was most imposing. When the spacious grounds opposite the approach to the palace, which is known as the "Double Bridge" was reached, the enthusiasm reached its height. Thousands of children were again massed in order to impress them with the idea that the Americans were about to pay a friendly visit within the grounds of the palace where lived the great Emperor. Only a select few have ever visited these grounds, and few indeed have ever been given an audience by the Emperor.

The children cheered continuously, and presented a beautiful scene in their picturesque costumes as they waved flags and bowed low as the carriages passed. The cheers continued even long after the carriages disappeared within the gates.

Arriving at the palace, the visitors were ushered into a beautiful garden hall, where the admirals were introduced by the American Ambassador, Thomas J. O'Brien, who, with Admiral Sperry, was invited to enter the Emperor's room, where the message from President Roosevelt, which, of course, had already been submitted to the Emperor, was read. This was translated, and the Emperor then replied.

then reentered the audience hall, the Emperor standing at one end with Rear-Admiral Sperry on his left and an interpreter on the right. Rear-Admiral Emory then approached and presented the officers of his squadron. The same programme was followed by Rear-Admirals Scherzer and Wainwright, each taking his place by the side of the commander-in-chief of the fleet. The whole scene was repeated in another magnificent room, where the Empress stood and received the admirals and other officers of the fleet.

The presentation was followed by an elaborate luncheon at which forty-five persons were present. The Emperor occupying a position at the center of the table with Rear-Admiral Sperry sitting opposite him, the officers on both sides being graded down according to rank with the Japanese and American officers intermingled. The table was magnificently decorated and the menu was most elaborate. At the end of the meal the Emperor retired, meeting Rear-Admiral Sperry at the door and bade him a most cordial farewell, and presented him with a magnificent silver vase. As the Emperor retired, the American and Japanese officers also left.

This afternoon the officers of the American and Japanese fleets, the visiting delegates of the Pacific Coast business men and their ladies, and many of the most prominent citizens of Tokyo, numbering in all about 1000, were entertained at a garden party at Asano. Tonight the naval officers were the guests of the Naval Club, a reception given by Vice-Admiral Sakito, the Japanese Minister of Marine, while the scene of yesterday evening was repeated. Only officers of the American and Japanese navies and foreign Ambassadors and Ministers were invited. Admiral Sperry spoke at considerable length, thanking the American officers for their visit and said that the officers of the Japanese navy, largely educated in America, it was a delight for old friends to meet again and he expressed the hope that the friendship would continue unbroken. Rear-Admiral Sperry responded eloquently on behalf of the American officers. The enthusiasm was tremendous and the decorations at the clubs most lavish.

There are festivities in every direction in Yokohama. The American men of the American fleet who are hugely enjoying their visit in Japan.

PRESIDENT TO EMPEROR.

MESSAGE OF FRIENDSHIP.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.)

WASHINGTON, Oct. 20.—The following is the text of President Roosevelt's message to Rear-Admiral Sperry for transmission to the Emperor of Japan:

"Sperry, Flagship Connecticut, Yokohama: Convey to His Majesty, the Emperor, my best wishes for his continued good health and happiness and that of all the inhabitants of his realm. Express to His Majesty the highest regards of the President of the United States and the people of the United States at the opportunity which permits the commander-in-chief of the United States fleet in person to deliver my declaration of the friendship which has existed from the earliest time between the United States and Japan and of the honor to the United States in this invitation to the United States Atlantic fleet to visit the Empire of Japan in its price cruise during the winter. You will express to His Majesty the Emperor my earnest wish for the strengthening and continuance of cordial relations which exist and have always existed, between the two countries."

BURFORD DETAINED.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.)

NAGASAKI, Oct. 20.—The United States army transport Buford, sailing from Manila October 15, en route to San Francisco, has been detained here on account of the death of a soldier on board from cholera. Another case developed, but the patient is recovering. The officers of the Buford say they do not fear a further spread of the disease.

LONG COAST CRUISE.

TO TALCAHUANO.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.)

WASHINGTON, Oct. 20.—When the Pacific fleet under command of Rear-Admiral Swinburne left Magdalena Bay, about December 1, on its trip south, it will go first to Panama, and then sail directly for Talcahuano, a distance of 2000 miles. The stops in South America, including Coquimbó and Callao, will be made on the return to the United States.

EARTHQUAKE IN MANILA.

Series of Shocks Cause People to Run from Buildings, but Do No Damage.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS DAY REPORT.)

MANILA, Oct. 20.—Commencing at 10:43 o'clock yesterday morning a series of light earthquakes were felt at Manila at irregular intervals until 5:30 p. m. Only four of the shocks were pronounced, the others, numbering about a dozen, being merely recorded by the seismographs at the observatory, where the instruments continue to record for several hours. Two shocks were especially sharp, but no damage was done in the city and none has been reported from other places.

Calculations made at the observatory indicate that the seismic disturbance was local, its center being close to Manila.

Many persons fled from buildings during the more severe shocks, but the populace generally was calm.

GIRL MADDENED BY WORRY.

Thinks Woman Who Bit Her Had Rabies and Now She Is Near Hydrophobia.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)

NEW YORK, Oct. 20.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Miss Dora Klappin, only 19 years of age, lay in the psychopathic ward of the Bellevue Hospital tonight, now writhing in convulsions like one of hydrophobia, again raving maniacally.

The unhappy girl was crazy, said Dr. Gregory, in charge of the ward, for she had worried herself into the conviction that she had hydrophobia. An insane woman had bitten her on the cheek.

Miss Klappin had made herself believe this woman had rabies, and under the crushing weight of this delusion thought her mind gave way.

Mr. Forbes Describes Experience of Traveling Eight Thousand Miles for Sake of Spending Eight Minutes in Air—Dropped Through Roof into Woman's Bedroom.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)

NEW YORK, Oct. 20.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Augustus Post and A. Holland Forbes, the balloonists who dropped 200 feet to the ground when Mr. Forbes's balloon, the Conqueror, burst in the Berlin race, arrived here today on the North German Lloyd steamer Kronprinzessin Cecilie. Mr. Forbes described his sensations.

"We traveled 8000 miles from the United States to Berlin and back again," said Mr. Forbes, "for the privilege of being in a balloon eight minutes, five of which were spent in safety and three of which we utilized in descending 200 feet, at an average of about a thousand feet a minute."

"We had forty-two bags of sand as ballast, ten of which were in the basket and thirty-two dangling from ropes outside."

"The balloon burst and we began cutting the ropes of the outside bags and also dropped those inside the basket overboard. Then we released the ropes of the inner bags, one by one, until we had reduced our speed until we struck a house in Berlin."

"We crashed through the roof and descended into a woman's bedroom. We climbed back to the shattered roof and waved our handkerchiefs to our rescuers. The house was uninjured. There were 600 persons who saw the accident to our balloon."

Mr. Forbes said he would try again as soon as he got a new balloon.

Greatest Increase in New Illinois Fields and Phenomenal Yield in Oklahoma—Sensational Developments of Year Increase in Both Quality and Price in California.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.)

WASHINGTON, Oct. 20.—The petroleum production of the United States in 1907, says an Agricultural Survey report issued today, was characterized by a total output greatly in excess of any previous year and unparalleled accumulation of stocks, in spite of which the price of all grades of oil was kept at a high level.

The sensational developments were the great increase in the new Illinois fields and the phenomenal yield in Oklahoma, together with increase in both quantity and price in California. The total production was 164,096,325 barrels in 1907, an increase over 1906 of 25,601,399 barrels, or more than the total product of any year up to 1899.

The total value increased from $25,417,725 in 1906 to $120,167,749 in 1907. During 1907 a total of 18,855,691 barrels of oil were consumed as fuel by the railroads of the United States, as against 15,557,377 barrels in 1906.

RAILROAD RECORD. LINES HURT BY PUBLIC ENMITY.

E. D. McKenna Says Hostility Is Dangerous.

Depreciation Follows After Attacks.

Three Million People Adversely Affected.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)

CHICAGO, Oct. 20.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] "If the present forces at work should produce the dire result of compelling the railroads to allow their properties to depreciate, the industrial and commercial community can look forward with full assurance to the fact that it will be the work of years to restore the railroads to the plane of efficiency which would admit of their handling a tonnage equal to that of past records."

This statement was made tonight by E. D. McKenna, vice-president of the St. Paul road, in an address before the Western Railway Club. Mr. McKenna drew a picture of railway conditions and insisted that they had been brought about without an understanding on the part of the people of what was due the transportation interests.

Owing to the fact that the railway interests had been hounded by the legislature and had been refused the boon of increasing rates they had been compelled to economize in the maintenance of their properties. How serious this forced neglect is shown by the fact that it will take ten years of effort to get the railways of the country up to the physical standard of the times prior to the recent financial depression.

Of seventeen million the population of the United States, McKenna said, there are approximately 3,000,000 citizens of the United States who are engaged in the manufacture and sale of railway supplies whose vital interest in the pursuit of life, liberty and happiness do not seem to have been the concern of any one. These interests have been subject to attack by all the factions of militant political parties. They have set their faces strongly against any increase in railway rates and have exercised a potential campaign for the reduction of revenues, from whatever source it might arise.

Speaking of the Railway Employees' and Investors' Association, recently formed, Mr. McKenna said:

"Have you ever seen a million of people represented in the railway constituency, a right to demand legislation? Have the interests of upwards of seventeen millions of people in the United States dependent upon this constituency a right to be heard? Is it right that seventeen millions of people should be specifically legislated against that the other sixty-five to seventy millions may have greater voice in the prosperity that should be common to all?"

(ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.)

MADRID, Oct. 20.—The Minister of War has received an official telegram from all the Moroccan tribes, announcing that all the tribes have arisen and are uniting with hostile intent.

PARIS, Oct. 20.—Advices have been received here of another engagement in Morocco. At a point near Mondoville, a French detachment was attacked a few days ago by a band of Moors. The enemy was driven back with a loss of fourteen men killed. The French had four men killed.

ONE KILLED, FIVE INJURED BY AUTO.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.)

SALINAS, Oct. 20.—By the wreck of a big steam automobile at Camphora, three miles north of Soledad, last night, John Heibel was killed outright, and five other men, including the chauffeur, were badly injured.

The dead: JOHN HEIBEL. The injured: C. M. VILLA. CHAS. N. CAFE. VICTOR MASSERA. CHARLES LINDSTROM. L. B. DICKET.

All the men were members of Salinas Grove of Druids, and were going to Soledad to assist in the initiation ceremonies of the grove at that place.

Of the injured, it is feared that Victor Massera and L. H. Dickey may die.

At Camphora, the chauffeur, who is reported to have been speeding the automobile, was killed outright. He was there as two sharp turns in the road. The machine skidded, turned completely over, and landed on the side.

He had discovered, for one thing, that each and every word uttered by Mr. McLachlan in Congress during the present Congress cost the people a good 40 per cent. And the word was not so very long ones either, it seems.

There was some other startling revelations. Among other things Mr. McLachlan said:

"I do not pretend to say, for I have not looked the matter up, that Mr. McLachlan's words were the most expensive ever spoken in the halls of Congress, but I feel justified in saying that I have never known or heard of any costing more. And he never said 'let's fruit' nor 'San Pedro harbor' once."

Pair of Old Dubs Give Very Poor Exhibition.

Decision Given to Marvin in the Fifth Round.

Elbow Jack Floors Big One by Foul in Third.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)

BOSTON, Oct. 26.—(Exclusive Dispatch.) The scheduled twelve-round bout between Jack (Twin) Sullivan of this city and Marvin Hart of Louisville ended abruptly tonight at the beginning of the fifth round, when Sullivan fouled Hart.

The fight was a poor one from a spectacular point of view, both men at times boxing like longshoremen. Sullivan weighed about 160 and Hart 200 pounds. For the first two rounds, Sullivan jabbed with his left to the head and drove right to the body. Hart was staggered with a left swing to the nose, a left to the body and a right to the face. Hart countered heavily on the ribs and stomach.

In the middle of the third round, Sullivan swung his left low and it landed on Hart's groin. He went down and was carried to his corner. Sullivan repeated the foul in the fifth.

KID MCCOY QUILTS. SAYS HE MADE MISTAKE.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)

NEW YORK, Oct. 26.—(Exclusive Dispatch.) Kid McCoy confirms his statement to W. B. (Stat) Materson that he will never fight again.

"I feel that I owe it to you and myself to explain my last appearance in the ring. I thought I might be able to do something new in the history of pugilism and come back after my long retirement. I tried and found I was mistaken. I will never fight again."

MCCAREY CARD GOOD. FOURTH BOUT IS ADDED.

Fistic fans certainly will have plenty of action at the regular weekly boxing show of the Pacific Athletic Club at McCarey's pavilion next Friday evening. The card shows considerable class and the quantity is sufficient for any fight bug. Besides the ten-round contest, a six-round opening bout was arranged yesterday in which Eddie White of Australia will meet Mike Dalton.

The complete card is as follows: Dick Cullen and Kid Snyder, ten rounds, 123 at 3 p.m.

Walter Fisher and Kid Snyder, ten rounds, 123 at 3 p.m.

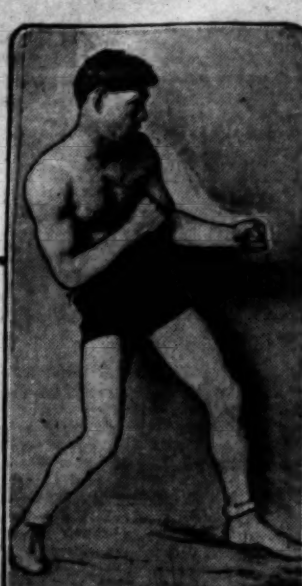

Willie O'Neill and Danny Webster, ten rounds, 123 at 3 p.m.

Mike Dalton and Eddie White, six rounds.

Snyder and Cullen continued their work yesterday and both are within the 135-pound mark. Cullen appears to be the favorite in the little betting which has been recorded so far. He is going at a fast clip and all of the boys who are training at the East Side camp declare that he will be able to defeat Snyder even with the long experience of the Chicago boy in the ring.

Fisher is learning the rudiments of training for the first time. Charlie O'Connor is putting him through and the boy is working with a vim to make his weight for his go with Snyder. He is ambitious to become a top-notch in the 123 class and he sees in such boys as Snyder a chance for something higher. Snyder is under the guidance of Roy Page and is being gotten into fine shape for the ten-round scrap.

Jim Flynn has been taking it easy since his arrival in Los Angeles, but he will buckle down to hard work today and begin training for his bout

LOCALS LANCE BIG LEAGUER.

Find Heaver Sutor a Very Easy Problem.

In and Out Pitching Fails to Bring Victory.

Beck Surprises Fans With a Fine Running Catch.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)

Los Angeles, 8; San Francisco, 1. If Sutor does not do any better in the big league, he may as well quit. He pitched yesterday against the locals, the east erners will tie a can to him in about five minutes and hurry him back to the farm. In and out business don't go there, or in this league either, for that matter. Sutor, looking over to his corner, pitched out to center for five innings, and in the sixth the locals slapped him up against the fence and all around the lot. Koestner himself made enough runs to win the game with.

Beck, in center for the Seals, allowed the first two runs to score for the locals in the third inning, and a few minutes later started the fans with one of the most spectacular catches ever made here. With one out and Oakes on base, Beck hit a long fly to center that went almost to the fence. It was a sharply right ball, and Beck ran in on it. He soon saw his mistake, and started to turn back, but he was too late. The ball struck him about one hundred feet from his right hand up in front of his face, turning it upward, snared the pill. It was a beautiful effort, and was loudly applauded.

Oakes also pitched for a neat double play in the fourth inning that made the glad hands clap in approbation. With one out, Williams was on third base when Beck hit a short fly to center. Williams did not think Oakes could get the ball, and played off the bag, and then when Oakes caught the fly, Williams dashed back to third base and then foolishly tried to reach the plate, but was thrown out.

The Seals started out in the first with their only run on Mohler's two-bagger and steal and Bodie's swat to center, and after that but three men reached base.

With one out in the second for the locals, Easterly singled, and then Koestner drove a short fly over second. Beck tried to make a grand stand catch by running and scooping the ball, but missed it, and the ball went to the center for a triple. Had he waited to take it on the bounce he could probably have forced Easterly at second base. As it was, Easterly scored and Koestner also ran across the plate on Oakes's fielder's choice to Sutor. Howard scored in the third on his own single and Smith's double to center, and five more runs resulted in the seventh from two doubles, three singles and Zelder's lead throw to first.

There was only a small crowd present, and it was certainly not large enough to encourage continuous ball here, next season.

SLEEPY CONTEST. TAIL ENDS TRIM BEAVERS.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 26.—(Exclusive Dispatch.) The game between Oakland and San Francisco today was one of the drawn-out, sleepy affairs.

Oakland won the game by a score of 7 to 2, but that was only an incidental matter, the only feature worth mentioning being that it took exactly fifty minutes to play two and a half innings.

Christian twirled for the Commuters and had the northerners guessing most of the time, while Barrett was being netted from his deliveries, and these, combined with five "boots," helped the run over the plate.

The Oaks crossed the pan right off the reel a couple of times. The northerners got two in their half of the second in this wise. With two down, Madden reached first on Cook's sloppy throw to Christian, and went to second when Cook booted Rafferty's line drive. Madden came home on Garrett's clean single, and Rafferty scored on a passed ball.

Root of Christian's drive, Van's single to left, and McCay's hot bingle to Garrett, helped another over the plate. The second and Garrett was lucky to escape with such little damage.

Every one of the Oaks joined in the fun in the fourth, walks, hits, steals and "boots" all helping over a triplet of runs.

Oakland filled the bags in the seventh and eighth innings, but Garrett managed to pull himself out of the hole, and Christian also saved a score in the ninth after the inning had opened with a single from Rafferty and a double from Casey.

RESULTS OF MOVE TO "DOWN THE TIMES."

This Journal Has Gained in Circulation Eightfold and in Advertising Tenfold Since the Labor Unions' Boycott Started.

THE TIMES is now in the eighth year of its battle with the "down the times" movement. The movement, which began in 1918, was a result of the labor unions' boycott of the paper. The Times, which was founded in 1910, has gained in circulation eightfold and in advertising tenfold since the boycott started. The paper's circulation was 10,000 in 1918, but it has grown to 80,000 today. Its advertising revenue has also increased tenfold, from $100,000 in 1918 to $1,000,000 today. The Times has been able to maintain its position as a leading newspaper in Los Angeles despite the boycott. It has been able to attract new subscribers and advertisers, and it has been able to maintain its high standards of journalism. The Times has been able to do this because it has been able to maintain its independence and its commitment to the public. It has been able to do this because it has been able to maintain its high standards of journalism. The Times has been able to do this because it has been able to maintain its independence and its commitment to the public.

WISE TALKS BY THE "OFFICE BOY"

A little girl, returning from church, where she saw for the first time a collection taken up, said: "A man passed around a plate that had some money on it, but I didn't take any." When you buy an article in any of our stores, we hand you back more change than you can possibly get in any other store. If you buy the same quality article, you buy a $3 hat, we give you the same quality other sell to $3.50 and $4.00. That's the same as handing you the money. When we sell you a suit or a overcoat, we give you a discount that you'd have to pay $25 elsewhere, in reality we hand you $25. If our 50c neckties are as good as others get 75c, we hand you 25c. We are good believers in small profits and big active business. We are determined to do the Hat, Coat and Men's Furnishings business of Southern California, and we want you to assist us. In return, we agree to give you the values that you can possibly obtain elsewhere, insure every article we sell you, and replace it if it should fail to give you satisfaction. You will be well served by high-class, honest, and reliable salesmen, who will show you every attention. We don't start today. You are the kind of a man who will appreciate our up-to-date methods.

FORESTERS AT HOLLISTER.

Two Hundred Delegates Attend Court and Take Part in the Parade.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.]
HOLLISTER, Oct. 26.—Two hundred delegates belonging to the Independent Order of Foresters arrived by train at noon today and were met by a delegation from the local court and a guard of honor from the Santa Rosa court of twenty ladies in natty uniforms.

Proceeded by the Hollister Band, they marched down Fifth and San Benito streets to the hall.

All along the march they received a hearty welcome from the townspeople lined on the sidewalks. The streets are gay with bunting and banners, and the shops are all decorated.

After lunch High Chief Ranger Murphy called the session to order, after which came the conferring of degrees and memorial services for forty-two deceased members.

Committees were appointed and adjournment was taken until tomorrow.

MURDEROUS WIND.

FREAK WRECK KILLS FOUR.

CABOOSE TORN FROM TRAIN BY TERRIFIC GALE.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS DAY REPORT.]
CHEYENNE (Wyo.) Oct. 26.—The result of an unprecedented accident on the Union Pacific at Lone Tree Creek, Wyo., last night, six laborers are known to be dead and several others probably met death while twenty-five or thirty others were injured, many very seriously. A terrific gale picked up the caboose of a work train, tore it away from its coupling and carried it over the edge of a fill-in. It dropped there with its forty occupants, nearly all of whom were section laborers, and the terror-stricken men were piled up in helpless confusion among wreckage when it landed.

The work of rescue is still in progress and only disconnected details have come to headquarters here. The names of the dead cannot be ascertained and those of only three of the injured are known: Conductor James Lowery, Roadmaster Corlies and Traveling Auditor Sumption.

The men had been at work below Hermosa Junction and were returning to take a siding at that point for the night when the accident occurred. By the time the train reached the long deep fill at Lone Tree the wind had assumed tremendous velocity and a twinkling light caboose was torn from the string of flat cars to which it was attached and hurled down the steep embankment. The caboose, which became panic-stricken and those who were thrown to the floor were trampled upon. The car was reduced to kindling wood and twisted iron rods by the time it reached the bottom of the cañon. Those who were killed were iron pierced by splinters or trampled upon or crushed under the debris.

A relief train was sent to Lone Tree and the dead and injured brought to Cheyenne. Had the caboose rolled to the bottom of the fill, forty or more of its occupants would have been killed.

ANNIS MAN ON CHAINS JURY.

DEFENSE OBJECTS TO FRIEND OF VICTIM.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS DAY REPORT.]
NEW YORK, Oct. 26.—Capt. Peter C. Hains, Jr., and his brother, T. Jenkins Hains, were arraigned before Supreme Court Justice Garretson at Flushing, L. I., today on an indictment charging murder in the first degree in connection with the death of William E. Annis, John F. McIntyre, counsel for the defense, demurred to the indictment on the ground that the grand jury had not been properly drawn, his principal objection being the presence on the jury of a man said to have been a lifelong friend of Annis. The court refused to take up the point, whereupon Mr. McIntyre asked for time to inspect the minutes of the jury before entering plea for his clients. The case was then adjourned until tomorrow.

The proceedings in court today indicated that T. Jenkins Hains will be tried first. It is understood that Dist. Atty. Darrin will ask the court to fix November 9 as the date for the trial.

IMPOSING CEREMONIES.

Many Church Dignitaries Attend Funeral Services Over Body of Bishop Potter.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.]
NEW YORK, Oct. 26.—Grand Church on Broadway was thronged today with dignitaries of the Protestant Episcopal church and delegations from many sections when public funeral services were conducted over the body of Bishop Henry C. Potter, who died last July.

This service was preliminary to the transfer of the casket to its final resting place in the crypt of Tiffany Chapel in the great cathedral of St. John the Divine.

There were no eulogies and in accordance with the well-known wish of Bishop Potter no display of flowers. A long procession followed the body to the cathedral, passing through Fifth avenue.

THAW LOSES AGAIN.

Federal Court Decides Inmate Prisoner Need Not Be Taken to Pittsburgh.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.]
PITTSBURGH, Oct. 26.—In the Federal Court here today Judge Young dismissed the writ of habeas corpus requiring the presence of Thaw in this city. This means that Thaw will not be brought here at present.

It is intimated by Thaw's counsel that they will appeal. The writ dismissed today was that recently issued by United States Judge Scrantom, Pa., against Superintendent Lamb of the New York State Hospital for the Criminal Insane, which ordered the presence in this city of Thaw to testify in bankruptcy proceedings.

HOW TO PREPARE HOME MIXTURE.

IS EASILY MIXED BY ANYONE HERE WHO CAN READ THE DIRECTIONS.

Tells of Simple Prescription for Rheumatism and Kidney Trouble Which Relieves Nearly Every Person Who Tries It—"Times" Readers Should Cut This Out and Save it or Hand to Some Afflicted One Who Needs It.

The following prescription for the cure of rheumatism and kidney and bladder troubles has no doubt been filled millions of times, viz.: Fluid Extract Dandelion, one-half ounce; Compound Kargon, one ounce; Compound syrup of sarsaparilla, three ounces. These simple, harmless ingredients can be obtained at any good prescription pharmacy at little cost and are mixed by shaking well in a bottle.

The dose for adults is a teaspoonful after each meal and at bedtime, drinking a full tumblerful of water after each dose. It is stated that this prescription is a positive remedy for kidney trouble and lame back, weak bladder and urinary difficulties, especially of the elderly people, and one of the best things to be used in rheumatic affections, relieving the aches and pains and reducing swellings.

A well-known authority states that this mixture acts directly upon the eliminative tissues of the kidneys; cleanses these sponge-like organs and gives them power to sift and strain the poisonous waste matter and uric acid from the blood which is the cause of rheumatism.

If your back or sides ache and you suspect kidney trouble it would be wise to try this for a few days.

FOREST FIRES RAGE IN EAST.

PENNSYLVANIA, NEW HAMPSHIRE AND OHIO SUFFER.

Flames Sweep Timber Land and Endanger Villages—Citizens by Hundreds Fighting Blazes—The Drought Makes Situation More Serious—Wind Adds to Peril.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.]
PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 26.—From nearly every mountainous section of Pennsylvania come reports of forest and brush fires, the flames in some instances endangering villages.

Hundreds of citizens are fighting the flames.

The drought has dried the leaves and trees and they are making easy food for the flames.

The fires through the Allegheny Mountains are spreading rapidly and conditions there are reported alarming.

The eastern slope of the mountains is ablaze for several miles and a number of villages are threatened. There is practically a water famine in this district and smoke hangs like a pall over miles of territory.

IN NEW HAMPSHIRE.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.]
BERLIN (N. H.) Oct. 26.—Two disastrous forest fires have been burning in the vicinity of this city for four days and today were beyond control. The largest fire started on Hayes Mountain east of this city and has devastated an area ten miles long and five miles wide. Another fire is burning to the westward of the city.

IN FIVE OHIO COUNTIES.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.]
TOLEDO (O.) Oct. 26.—Forest and brush fires are sweeping through sections of five counties of Northwestern Ohio, doing an immense amount of damage. A thick haze covers the entire section.

GALE FANS MICHIGAN FIRES.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.]
SAULT STE. MARIE (Mich.) Oct. 26.—A gale which is blowing from the southeast today has revived the forest fire in Chippewa county to greater activity.

FLASHES FROM WIRES.

A cable message from Sydney, received by the Merchants' Exchange, San Francisco, says that the British ship Fifeshire, bound from Newcastle, Australia, to Oregon, was totally wrecked on Gilbert Island August 21. All aboard was saved and landed at Sydney. The Fifeshire had a full cargo of coal.

You May Enjoy Your Meals

If You Will But Equip Your Stomach With the Right Means to Handle the Food.

If you go into a restaurant, cafe or hotel, where all your environments, the lights, dazzling flames, silver, cut glass, music, chattering waiters, place a copious meal to furnish of a pleasant meal, your stomach should not revolt when you read the menu card.

Heavy steaks, soups, oysters, entrees, salads, etc., should hold no terrors for the healthy stomach and they do not.

A small box of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets placed in your vest pocket will be sufficient guard against the mad revels of a worn-out stomach.

A tablet taken a few moments after a copious meal will remove any ill effects of food from your stomach and you may eat as generously as those about you.

NEWS AND BUSINESS.

Fall Term for Appeals.
The Second District Court of Appeal will meet for its fall term, beginning next Monday morning.

Negro Meeting Later.
A meeting of negroes, planned for tonight, at which Col. Allen Allen was to make a report and to deliver a message from the negro voters of the East, has been postponed to an evening next week, the date not yet being settled.

Chautauqua County Picnic.
Former residents of Chautauqua county, N. Y., now of Southern California, will picnic tomorrow at Long Beach, meeting in the Auditorium there at 11:30 o'clock p. m., where they will enjoy a fish dinner. One hundred or more persons are expected to attend.

Phi Delta Phi Initiation.
Deputy Chapter of the Phi Delta Phi fraternity, U. S. C. College of Law, will hold its annual initiation at Levy's on Thursday evening at 7:30. A large number of alumni will be present, and there will be a number of initiates. Chief Justice Deady of the Supreme Court, for whom the chapter is named, will be made an honorary member.

Girl Thrown by Car.
While alighting from a Boyle Heights car at First street and Broadway about 8 o'clock last night, Tomlinson, aged 13 years, of No. 610 North State street, was thrown to the pavement. She was carried, unconscious, to the Receiving Hospital, where the surgeons found she had sustained a slight concussion of the brain. She was afterward taken home.

Veterans Will Go.
The Army and Navy Republican caucus will assemble at their hall, No. 117 South Broadway, at 7:15 o'clock Friday evening, where they will meet with members of the Grand Army, Sons of Veterans, Spanish War Veterans and of the Army of the Philippines for the purpose of attending a body the meeting to be addressed by Gov. Gillett at Simpson Auditorium. The entire Veterans March Corps will lead the veterans on the march.

Harbor Fortification.
The government board on the fortification of San Pedro harbor will visit Los Angeles today to discuss plans with Capt. A. A. Pries, Corps of Engineers, U. S. A. The office work of Capt. Pries has completed maps and plans for the harbor for the use of the board and the final report will shortly be forwarded to the War Department at Washington. The board is composed of Col. John Lundeen, Col. J. B. Bellinger and Maj. C. H. Kinstry.

Lawyers Jailed.
Several attorneys with business in the Supreme Court yesterday morning had their offices shocked when the elevator in the Bullard Block descended to the basement with force. The car was crowded and when the operator tried to make a stop at the first floor the machinery refused to work. The car settled with a thud on the basement floor and the occupants of the cage had to scramble in an undignified manner up a flight of narrow stairs to the floor above.

VOTE IN DEFENSE.
Stockholders in Mining Company Assent Their Trust in the Steifers. Who Are Indicted.

ments in the affairs of the Oroville mine, which led to the indictment of two of the Steifers on the charge of obtaining money under false pretenses. The local stockholders passed resolutions strongly indorsing the Steifers and affirming their entire confidence in the value of the mine. It was intimated that parties having personal reasons for ousting the Steifers from their control of the property instituted the criminal proceedings. In approving the resolutions there were only two dissenting votes, and $5,400 shares of stock were represented, said to be nearly ten times that owned by the opposition interests. The resolutions set forth that the local stockholders have the fullest confidence in the Steifers, and that an investigation of the property has convinced the investors of its richness and its ability to pay future dividends, when certain difficulties are overcome. Those present stated that they were willing to aid the defense in every way possible.

The squabble began when Harry Meserve, a well-known duck-raiser, was killed by a duck. His wife, Mrs. Meserve, was the only one left to run the ranch. DESPERATE DEER DUEL. Russian and Indian Bucks Engage in Deadly Combat at Eastlake Zoo. A duel to the death was averted in Eastlake Park yesterday only by the dash and effort of Keeper Rice, with a friend to help him. The big Russian white deer in one of the paddocks took a dislike to the spotted coat of the Indian deer (Cervus axia), which occupies the next paddock. Russia has always had a hankering for breaking boundaries in India, at least the Russian deer has that instinct, for it smashed down the fence and started out to butt and stampede the axis deer to a limp bag of broken bones. But Mr. Axis was just as pug-nacious, and for twenty minutes the two bucks fought all over the place, each seeking to stamp the other down. As with all fighting deer, the combat was to the death, and, though the horns of both these deer are cut off, it was dangerous to approach them. Finally, Keeper Rice made a lucky cast of a lasso over the head of the Russian deer, and he was dragged into his own paddock, while another man beat back the axis deer with a club to keep it from wounding his opponent.

BIGGER JOB FOR LAWLER. DISTRICT ATTORNEY URGED FOR SEAT ON NEW BENCH. Move to Get Second Federal District Court for Los Angeles—Bar Association Takes Lead in the Campaign That Will Be Made at Coming Session of Congress. Within a year Los Angeles will have two district judges in the Federal court, if the local Bar Association's earnest efforts in that direction prove successful. For months prominent attorneys who have occasion to practice in the United States Court have been working quietly to this end. At the coming session of Congress a bill is to be introduced creating the additional judgeship, and Senator Flint and influential colleagues, it is believed to be almost certain of passage. United States District Attorney Lawler is likely to get the plum. Federal business has been growing to an amazing extent in this southern district, and practically as much work is handled as in the northern (San Francisco) division, which has three judges. Circuit Judge Ross is also a member of the United States Circuit Court of Appeals and his duties in that court take him away from Los Angeles much of the time. While he, he passes most of his time in chambers. This leaves the bulk of the work to fall upon the shoulders of the local judges. After twenty years of concurrent jurisdiction in the Circuit and District courts, Judge Wellborn, who is regarded highly by members of the bar as a worker far beyond his strength, his friends assert. Following luncheon, a meeting will be held at 12:15 p.m. at the Whittier wigwam, and the party will depart for Los Angeles at 12:45 o'clock. Leaving Los Angeles at 1:35 o'clock, the car will arrive at El Monte at 2:10, departing at 2:30 for Covina, which will be reached at 2:45. From Covina the party will leave in automobiles for Glendora, where, from 3:30 to 3:45 o'clock, a meeting will be held. By automobile thence to Azusa, a fifteen-minute stop will be made, then the special trolley car will be boarded for Monrovia, which is to be reached at 4:25 and left at 4:50. The Governor and his escort will reach Pasadena at 5:30 o'clock and will dine at Hotel Maryland, where after dinner a reception will be held. At 8 o'clock the Governor will speak in a large tent on Fair Oaks avenue.

KNOTTY LAND POINT. Right of Contestant to Cross-examine Holder of Claim is Discussed at Hearing. The question of the right of the contestant to cross-examine the holder of a desert land claim as to matters tending to incriminate him, was discussed at yesterday's hearing of the case of Walter P. Anderson against Thaddeus D. McCall in the local United States Land Office. McCall, who testified in his own behalf that he had made the required improvements on the land in the Imperial Valley, is under indictment on charges of impersonating a government officer and of swearing falsely before the Register. The incriminating nature of other issues will be decided by Gen. F. C. Prescott, register, and O. R. W. Robinson, receiver. The hearing has also lasted for nearly a week and numerous witnesses have appeared on each side. As the civil case will, in a measure, tend to show some of the alleged criminal acts of the contestant, the decision of the Land Office is awaited with anxiety by the litigants.

The prints were carefully measured. Several days later the detective found Knight hanging about the railroad yards, trying to work his way to Yuma. He had a sock on one foot, while the other was bare, and he was arrested on suspicion. His footprints correspond to those about the bar.

SUMMARY OF THE DAY.

The Police Commission yesterday suspended Patrolman Beal, charged with striking Watchman Beal, and restored him to duty without loss of pay.

City Attorney Hewitt telegraphed from Washington that the appeal of the Home Telephone Company will be argued before the United States Supreme Court today.

The widow of Capt. Walter Aubie, who was killed while in discharge of his duties as police captain, was granted a pension by the Police Commission.

Judge Bordwell yesterday denied Edward E. Taylor, former principal of the Monrovia High School, a writ of mandate directing the trustees of the Monrovia school district to reinstate him.

A. H. Dean's preliminary examination, on a charge of having embezzled $233 from the Machinery and Equipment Company, was held before Justice Summers yesterday.

Justice Stephens yesterday gave judgment for the defendant in Mrs. Sarah Rubin's suit against Thomas Butler for $225 damages for alleged personal injuries.

AT THE CITY HALL.

BLOW ON JAW NOT CENSURED.

OFFICER WHO HIT WATCHMAN IS EXONERATED FULLY.

Suspended Patrolman on Carpet Before Police Commission, but Reinstated Without Loss of Pay. Women in Affair and Held's Action Considered Justifiable.

Patrolman Percy Held was "on the carpet" before the Police Commission yesterday, charged with striking J. Beal, a private watchman, on the jaw. The lobby at the City Hall was filled with policemen when the commission met to try the officer, who had been suspended by Lieut. Lenhausen. After routine business had been transacted the commissioners retired to the inner sanctuary and heard the case behind closed doors. They called before them both Beal and Held, and heard a large number of witnesses. Then they restored Held to his place, without loss of pay or censure, while they exonerated the lieutenant for suspending him.

A member of the commission said, after adjournment, that the decision was unanimous and that everybody would concur in it if the facts were known. He intimated that there were some women in the affair and that the officer did only what any other man would have done under the circumstances.

Will Be Argued Today.

City Attorney Hewitt yesterday telegraphed from Washington, D. C., whether he went to argue the City's case in the appeal of the Home Telephone Company, before the United States Supreme Court, that the arguments will be heard today. He stated that Oscar Trippett, attorney for the telephone company, in his brief attacked the constitutionality of the clause in the charter permitting the city to fix rates, but stands on the contract in the franchise which fixes the maximum rate at the time of its granting.

Pension for Mrs. Aubie.

In accordance with the State law, Mrs. Aubie, widow of the late Capt. Walter Aubie, who was killed while in the performance of his duty as a police officer, was granted a pension by the Police Commissioners. The law provides that the widow shall have one-third of the salary that was received by her husband, and, accordingly, he paid for the remainder of her life, unless she should marry again, the sum of $66.66 a month.

Have Full Police Powers.

The Police Commissioners yesterday created twenty-eight policemen in the persons of the employees of the health department. They are to serve without pay, but have all the powers of other policemen.

AT THE COURTHOUSE.

EX-PRINCIPAL NOT SUSTAINED.

REINSTATEMENT IN MONROVIA HIGH SCHOOL DENIED.

Judge Decides Writ of Mandate Directed to Trustees is not Permissible and That Action for Damages is Proper Remedy—Teacher's Status Under Law Defined.

The right of discharged school teachers in California to a writ of mandate, directing school authorities to reinstate them in their positions, was defined by Judge Bordwell yesterday, in giving judgment adverse to Edward E. Taylor, former principal of the Monrovia High School. The plaintiff brought action against the Monrovia school district trustees for a writ of mandate to compel them to reinstate him and to draw warrants for his salary.

Taylor was employed as principal of the High School in July, 1906, and his position was declared vacant in March, 1907. The trustees asserted that by his lack of discipline, offensive conduct and general unfitness, the welfare of the school demanded his removal. He appealed to County Superintendent Keppel for a hearing, which was granted. Mr. Keppel's decision was adverse to Taylor, who then applied to the Superior Court for a writ of mandate.

After stating that the nature of the writ is not such as to make necessary for the court to inquire into the verity of the charges that Taylor was unfit for his position, the court says, in part:

"Under the common law, an action for damages is the proper remedy for a termination of the employment of an employee. A writ of mandate cannot be allowed to accomplish the purpose that would be sought by an action for damages, nor may school teachers employ such a remedy unless the statutes so provide. From careful consideration of arguments and authorities, I conclude that under the common law, the rights of a school teacher in California are those of an employee merely, unless changed by statutory law."

The court holds that the statutory limits placed by the Legislature on the causes, or mode of a discharge by school trustees is found in section No.

1088 of the Political Code by which an appeal to the county superintendent is allowed to the county superintendent, but he does not accept the contention of Taylor that, as such a hearing by the county superintendent is an appeal, it necessarily implies a previous formal trial before the school trustees. He does, however, concede that a writ of mandate may be issued to school trustees who refuse to obey the county superintendent's decision in favor of a teacher who has appealed to him.

"There is a distinction between an 'elected' teacher and one employed by formal contract," the opinion says, "and an elected teacher may be entitled to a writ of mandate, but the provisions of section No. 1728, providing for the tenure of 'city certificate' teachers, have no application to the tenure of teachers employed by trustees of school districts."

The court upholds the common-law right of school trustees to act on their own judgment in dismissing a teacher when he lacks, in their opinion, the necessary qualifications for the position, also upholds the right of the county superintendent to overrule their action.

WHO USED STICK?

ROW OVER CHICKEN COOP.

A dismantled chicken coop of nominal value, over which Mrs. Sarah Rabin and her former landlord, Thomas Butler, had a difference of opinion on August 12, gave rise to a suit by Mrs. Rabin against Butler for $225 damages in Justice Stephens' court yesterday.

The court upholds the common-law right of school trustees to act on their own judgment in dismissing a teacher when he lacks, in their opinion, the necessary qualifications for the position, also upholds the right of the county superintendent to overrule their action.

EXPLANATION WANTED.

The preliminary examination of A. H. Dean, formerly connected with the Machinery and Equipment Company, on an embezzlement charge preferred by J. B. Jardine, Jr., of that concern, was begun before Justice Summers yesterday, and will be continued this morning. Jardine, who says that Dean embezzled $232 of the corporation's funds since he became connected with it last June, was the only witness examined.

"I had business dealings with Dean that led me to believe him the man to act as my agent in the Los Angeles office that I opened in June," the plaintiff testified. "After several conversations with him, he was finally agreed between us that he was to act as agent here, receiving 50 per cent of the net profit from the business secured by him. I was to pay all expenses of running the business and he was to forward all contracts to my San Francisco office for my approval."

"Dean took charge of the Los Angeles office in June, and I never received from him any account of any business done from that time until the end of the year, when our business relations terminated. I have learned from other sources that he had secured a stamp mill site, that he informed me he was to get for us, he disposed of to other parties and pocketed the money, and that he had secured a contract from Seattle man. For this I never got the money and the Seattle man wrote to me, asking for delivery of the rig. On the one contract I got from Dean I gave him a $500 check to complete the deal, but I have still to get an accounting on that contract."

It is stated that the defendant will claim that he was Jardine's partner and not an agent, and that therefore the embezzlement charge cannot hold against him.

COURTHOUSE NOTES.

BREVITIES MISCELLANEOUS.
GROWERS COMPLAIN. Ernest L. Drendel, former secretary of the Berry Growers of Tropico and Glendale, was arrested and gave $500 bail in Justice Summers' court yesterday for appearance at his preliminary examination on November 5 on a charge of having embezzled $232 from the concern on May 1.

NEGRO ACCUSED. Charles Jackson, a negro, was committed to the County Jail by Justice Pierce yesterday in default of $500 bail for appearance at his examination on October 22 on a charge of having forged the name of J. T. Smith to a note for $4, which was given to the Keystone Loan Company on October 1, it is alleged.

CONTRACT LET. The Supervisors yesterday awarded, at $4907, to the Blum & Jay Company the contract for furnishing the County Hospital with a vacuum heating system. Three bids were submitted.

COLLISION. Joel Spohn yesterday filed in the Superior Court a $7500 damage suit against the Los Angeles Railroad Company for injuries alleged to have been received on July 20 in a collision between his team and a trolley car at South Main and Washington streets.

STOCK DEAL. The American Commercial Company was made defendant in two suits yesterday in the Superior Court. W. H. Parsons seeks to recover $2000 and C. M. Parsons $250. These sums are said to have been paid for stock in the corporation under alleged false representations made by its president, E. C. Wilhelm.

PROMOTER SUES. M. J. Danison yesterday filed suit in the Superior Court against C. W. Reynolds and others to secure title to 61,500 shares of stock in the National Building and Paying Brick Company, which, the plaintiff asserts, Reynolds refuses to turn over to him in accordance with the terms of an oral agreement made in June, 1906. The plaintiff says that he was to receive this stock for his work in promoting the corporation.

SON EXCEPTED. Mrs. Ida F. Collins, widow and executrix of D. H. Collins, who died at Spadra on September 20, leaving a $2500 estate, yesterday filed the obituary will in the Superior Court for probate. The estate is left to the widow and children, except F. H. Collins, a son.

LABEL CHARGED. S. M. Sevier yesterday filed in the Superior Court a suit against Thomas Wardall, 26th street, where advertisements and subscriptions were taken by experienced dupes.

damages for alleged libel. The plaintiff asserts that last spring he secured a contract from the city of Monrovia for a portion of Olive avenue, in that city, and that before the work was completed by the Trustees the defendant circulated a statement that the work was not done according to specifications. This is declared to be false and the plaintiff states that six signs of the statement have informed him that they signed it under false representations. The work on the street was not accepted by the Trustees.

AGENT CHARGED. E. L. Debell has sworn to a complaint in Justice Stephens' court charging W. P. Reynolds and Albert E. Stein of the Reynolds-Stein Company, with the embezzlement of $25,000 from the George Schultz Company, a Wisconsin corporation. A few days ago the A. George Schultz Company filed in the Superior Court a civil suit against Reynolds and Stein for $25,000 damages and an accounting of about $60,000 worth of box goods, said to have been shipped to Reynolds, as agent. Charges of conspiracy were also made in the complaint against Stein, and the plaintiffs asserted that their trade in the West had been seriously damaged.

INCORPORATIONS. Articles of incorporation were filed yesterday with the County Clerk by the Geo. Robbins Company, automobile dealers, capital stock, $10,000; Rule & Sons, general insurance, capital stock, $25,000; Bond Guarantees Company, capital stock, $100,000.

KNOTTY PROBLEM.

JURISDICTION IS IN DOUBT.

FEDERAL JUDGE DEFERS SUIT INVOLVING WATER.

Trial of Grants Pass Land Company's Action Against City Will Not Take Place Until Superior Court Decision in Similar Case is Rendered—Lawyers' Views Differ.

An important suit, that harks back to the days of the city's successful litigation to make sure of the question of water for the ownership of percolating waters in the San Fernando Valley, came up before Federal Judge Wellborn, yesterday. Although the title of the case is the Grants Pass Land and Water Company against the City of Los Angeles, it is virtually that decided in the Pomeroy-Hooker litigation. If it reaches the trial stage, similar issues will be involved, although another tract of land is at issue.

The case was brought in the Federal Court on the ground that the plaintiff is an Oregon corporation and hence removed from the state's jurisdiction. The city, however, does not take this view of the matter, and in a long opinion Judge Wellborn, who is the assistant to City Attorney Hewitt, took the ground that inasmuch as the plaintiff company was organized outside of the state, it was not a corporation of the state, and hence the ground of removing the riparian ownership cases to the Federal jurisdiction, it should be the duty of the court to decline to hear the case. Attorney Young argued that where there was any doubt about the removal, the court should find a cache of stolen bicycles. It is said by the detectives that the boys have been operating for several weeks.

Sunday Pattern Section.
Each subscriber and purchaser of the Sunday Times will thereafter receive a four-page PATTERN SECTION, containing a unique, exclusive, attractive feature of particular interest and value. It will not injure the most delicate fabrics, and so people take a child can successfully manipulate the process.

Attorneys J. W. McKinley and Ward Chapman represent the Grants Pass Land and Water Company.

It is stated that J. D. Hooker is largely interested in the Oregon concern, which holds title to about 1100 acres along the banks of the Los Angeles River, near to one of the city's tunnels. In the original bill of complaint, filed several years ago, it was set forth that the method employed by the city for increasing its water supply would draw upon the subterranean streams belonging to the plaintiff, in general the allegations followed those advanced in the water suit of the city against Pomeroy and Hooker, but the latter was a local riparian claimant and has no local riparian claim. If the case comes to trial in the Circuit Court it is thought possible that the method employed by the State Supreme Court may be sustained.

CHARGE DISMISSED.

Man Who Shot Obstreperous Negro Five Times Given Freedom from Further Prosecution.

Sidney Johnson, proprietor of the Siesta Club at Ninth and Santa Fe streets, was released from charge of assault, with intent to murder, after preliminary examination before Justice Rose in Police Court yesterday.

Johnson had always borne a good reputation, and had many men to testify to his good conduct. Charles Scott, a negro, who was shot five times in the body by Johnson, had been arrested several times, and was known as a trouble-maker.

Scott, according to the evidence at the preliminary trial, forced his presence upon the patrons of the Siesta Club and finally became such a nuisance that Johnson told him to keep away. Scott replied that he would not even, and returning later in the night, called Johnson to the front door of the club and threatened to shoot him. Johnson responded by drawing his revolver and firing five shots into the negro's body.

By some rare stroke of fortune, Scott recovered from the wounds, any one of which, ordinarily, was serious enough to have been fatal. He appeared against Johnson at the trial, but as soon as Justice Rose heard the testimony for the defense, he ordered the release of Johnson and threw the case out of court.

MESKIL CASE SUBMITTED.

The most important criminal case considered by the Supreme Court, sitting en banc, yesterday morning, was the appeal of Daniel Meskil, convicted of the murder of Patrolman Beal. Deputy Attorney-General George Beebe appeared for the people, but there was no appearance for the defendant. The case was ordered submitted. It was stated by the prosecution that the appeal was merely technical and had no merit. A number of other cases were argued before the court, and the adjournment at noon until this morning.

"Times" Branch Office, 531 S. Spring St. The case was ordered submitted at 531 S. Spring street, where advertisements and subscriptions were taken by experienced dupes.

THRILLING RIDE. A AUTO PINS BLIND WIFE; MAY DIE.

HUSBAND ALSO INJURED WHEN MACHINE TIPS OVER.

Breaks Fall on Grade at Glen Allyn Drive and Avenue Thirty-five and Car Runs Away With Sierra Madre Couple—Woman's Skull Probably Fractured.

Unable to check the speed of their automobile, S. R. Norris, a merchant of Sierra Madre, and his wife, Mrs. Mary E. Norris, were the victims of a singular accident yesterday afternoon on a steep grade at Glen Allyn Drive and Avenue 35. Mrs. Norris was fatally injured. After a superficial examination, Dr. Stroud said that it was probable that her skull was fractured, and that she had sustained internal injuries. Her husband's right arm was broken, his left shoulder strained and his body bruised. Both were taken to the home of relatives at No. 349 East Forty-eighth street.

Mr. and Mrs. Norris, accompanied by A. Mead, a real estate dealer of Sierra Madre, were intending to look at some property on Glen Allyn Drive. While the machine was climbing the steep grade, the engine stopped, and Mead, who was driving, applied the brakes. As he jumped out to crank the engine, the brakes gave way, and the auto plunged down the incline. Mead made a desperate effort to climb into it, but was thrown to the ground. Norris and his wife, who is blind, were thrown from the car. The merchant climbed into the front seat and tried in vain to make the brakes work.

The machine soon ran into a rut, over which the occupants were pinned beneath it.

GRANTS HER PETITION.

The State Supreme Court yesterday granted a petition for a hearing on an appeal by Mrs. John R. Lippincott, Jr., by Gertrude E. Stewart of San Diego against Judge E. S. Torrance of the Superior Court of San Diego county.

The petitioner was plaintiff in a divorce suit brought against her husband, Elmore Stewart. At the hearing, the husband was granted a divorce upon the allegation of adultery. An appeal was taken by attorneys for Mrs. Stewart, but it was asserted by the other side that there were technical defects in the filing of the appeal. Judge Torrance refused to allow the bill of exceptions, and the plaintiff then asked the Second District Court of Appeal to issue a writ directing the judge to settle the exceptions. This petition was refused on the ground of lack of jurisdiction. The appeal was moved from the state court to the higher tribunal next Monday.

BOYS TAKE BICYCLES.

Henry Humboldt, 620, Mimosa street, and Lester and John Banks of No. 1050 East First street, were arrested last night on the charge of stealing bicycles. The boys were taken to the Detention Home after they had confessed to detectives, informing them where the stolen bicycles were hidden. It is said by the detectives that the boys have been operating for several weeks.

printers to get the ballots out in time for election.

"They have been working eight or nine days, night and day. They have printed all the sample ballots, but only about 45,000 official ballots—about half the required number.

"If they are obliged to begin all over, they will not be able to get through in time for election. The law requires that the sample ballots be sent out ten days before election.

"In placing the words 'Vote for four' over Stephens' name, I took good counsel and I believe I was right, and the work has to be done over, the money loss will be considerable, although hardly worth mentioning compared with the danger of not being able to have an election.

"About 235 reams of paper have already been used, at a cost of $125 a ream. The sample ballots cost $1 or $1.50 a thousand to print. The printing already done on the official ballots has cost about $10 a thousand."

Justice Stephens said in regard to his suit: "It has seemed best to the committee to bring this suit for a writ of mandamus. It certainly does our side an injustice and defeats our plan. It virtually instructs the voters to vote for four candidates for judges, when there is no such obligation."

Do not believe the change requested would interfere with the election, because we do not ask that the County Clerk must have acted, refer back to the old 'party tickets,' used before the Australian ballots came in. Early this morning, on the convening of the Supreme Court, an alternative writ will be asked for.

WOMEN'S CLUBS.

A reception will be tendered David Warfield this afternoon at 2 o'clock by the members of the Friday Morning Club at the Woman's clubhouse, and the actor will make a short address.

Mrs. Shelley Tolhurst, president of the club, will be assisted in receiving by Mrs. John R. Lippincott, Jr., J. B. Lippincott, Mrs. W. Mitchell, Dr. Dorothea Moore and Miss Florence Moore.

Business Women Meet.

At a meeting of the Business Women's Association last night a discussion of current events, led by Mrs. Florence Collins Porter, the president, was the feature. A short talk was given by Julia Ward Gibson, the lecturer, who will speak to the club on "Daughters of Men, in the near future."

The proposed amendments to the State Constitution with regard to educational matters were considered, and the association refused to endorse them.

Delegates were selected to represent the organization at the annual meeting of the Federation of Women's Clubs to be held at Venice, November 17 to 20.

"Future of Woman."

The first meeting of the season of the Political Equality League will be held Friday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock in the Woman's clubhouse. A very interesting lecture will be given by Dr. L. E. Landone, who has chosen for his subject, "The Future of Woman."

CHAPTER XXI—(Continued.)

By some mysterious process (possibly not unconnected with postea) the party were conducted up a side staircase (not a great marble one celebrated by Napoleon), and after a whispered colloquy were admitted into a covered carpeted corridor, which ran round four sides of an open court, and was lined by halberdiers, and spectators standing two or three deep.

Among these Hester and Marietta thankfully subsided, a little in the background, but they were tall, and here they waited patiently whilst lackeys of the palace strolled to and fro. At last there was a movement; people ceased to whisper and sidget; an official in gorgeous uniform went briskly by; strains of an exquisite slow march became faintly audible.

"It is the court," announced the courier; "they are coming from the chapel—"

And behold, a number of men were advancing in time to the band, all wearing splendid uniforms. There was a pause, a slight cessation in the procession, and the courier whispered: "Look, look! here are the grandees of Spain!"

And then approached, in stately measure, a body of gentlemen in court suits—gold-embroidered velvet coats, knee breeches, and silk stockings. They wore many decorations and orders, each carried in his right hand a long-headed tortoiseshell cane—young, middle-aged, and old they were—and most of them remarkably handsome, undoubtedly of the purest blue blood, with thin aquiline profiles, dark eyes and distinguished. The grandees bore themselves with impressive dignity, and it was altogether a grave and splendid pageant.

Never in her life had Hester witnessed so proud and patrician a procession, and as they moved by, four abreast, she gave a little gasp. Among them was a man of the same type, and extraordinary like Paul de Sarazin. Oh, undoubtedly she had Paul on the brain! This nobleman wore the collar of some order, walked with his head erect, looking straight before him with an abstracted and impassive expression. Slowly he passed with others, and then came the tall young King—alone, boyish, an dyet dignified, with quick, searching, smiling eyes. After him his sister and his aunt, wearing mantillas and trains, and accompanied by their suite. Another pause in the procession. No, it was not yet ended; the music continued, and a crowd of courtiers and several ladies came into view—then the Queen Christina—alone, tall and slender, wearing a long close-fitting velvet gown, a crown, and mantilla. She looked truly regal, and, though not handsome, of a commanding, gracious presence—a Queen indeed.

Her ladies followed her, also various members of the household, and the Capello Publico was over.

Hester stood immovable, listening to the distant music, thrilled and agitated by the spectacle in a manner that amazed her. Why this queer catch in her throat? Were they not human beings like herself?

"Ah, you enjoyed that," said the courier complacently. "You saw it well!"

"Yes, thank you."

"The grandees were in numbers, and there were the ministers," he rattled off the names of at least a dozen Dukes and Counts.

"Was the Duke de San Telmo among them?" she brought herself to ask.

"I would not know—I have never seen him, but I will inquire of my friends in the palace."

"Oh, no, no!" she said nervously; "it is no consequence; it does not matter."

"Now, shall we go to the royal stables?" he suggested, "and see the Andalusian horses and the state carriages—what do you say?"

"No—no!" she replied, to his deep disappointment. "I have seen enough for today."

"But only the Almeria (the Armoury) and the procession," he cried. "Why, that is nothing at all; and so much to do; we are losing good time!"

And in spite of her reluctance, and desire to meditate over the great scene, and distinguish her impressions, the energetic courier carried Miss Forde off to the Museo Nacional, and Academia de Bellas Artes.

The following afternoon Mrs. Tudor accompanied her young friend round the principal curiosity shops or "Antiquariedades" in Madrid, beginning at the Calle Alcala, and ending with the rag-market. They purchased lace and fans; pictures, tapestries, and cabinets, the spoil of many ruined houses, tempted Hester sorely, for, like her champion, she loved old things; but what could she do with these articles at Simoesmoor? The gold-embroidered banners and brocade robes, the tapestries and portieres would only be eaten by the mice, and she wished them a better fate. Needless to say, she took a keen interest in the display of jewels—roughly cut diamonds, rubies, and emeralds sparkling in collars, earrings, and stomachers. Such starker settings—thick clusters of stones massed lavishly together, but among all the strange and valuable articles she turned over, Hester found nothing to compare with her own purchase. It had been, indeed, as Dominique had said, "just a chance."

As Hester was dressing for a dinner-party that evening, she casually asked Marietta "what she had been seeing that day?"

"Oh, Mademoiselle," she cried rapturously, "I have been to the Bull-ring!"

"The Bull-ring?" repeated her mistress, amazed.

"Yes, it was taken all over it—it was empty."

"Ah, well, as long as it was empty!" said Miss Forde. "I suppose it was like a great amphitheatre—seats all in tiers, and open to the sky?"

"Yes, it holds 15,000 people. In the middle, on the sand, a man was exercising a horse. It is big like a circus."

"Is it," said Hester indifferently, "and you showed up the dreadful black dots where the bulls are kept, divided from one another by wooden shutters, drawn up with ropes and pulleys. As one bull goes out, another is moved on, until all are ended! Oh, such horrible dark places! They keep them there for hours to make them savage—no food, no water, and when at last the shutter is lifted, and they dash into the ring, and there is no green sward—but just the ring and death!"

"Poor beasts!" exclaimed her listener.

"I also saw where they kept all the big peaked saddles, and old bridles, and the lances and sharp things, banderillas, and flags; also the collars and long traces for the mules, who drag out the dead horses and bulls. In the stables were many horses—oh, such poor creatures! so old and thin—waiting for the next bullfight, and their last day, which will be soon. Oh, Mademoiselle," suddenly clasping her hands in ecstasy, "it is so interesting!"

"There, there, Marietta!" she interrupted, "don't tell me any more. Give me my gloves, I must be going."

CHAPTER XXII.

THE LUCK OF THE SARAZINE.

"Are you ready?" inquired Mrs. Tudor, who, in a wonderful amethyst toilette, had immediately followed her knock. "Um, yes," she muttered doubt-fully, as she surveyed Hester's slim black figure, "but, my dear, I think you put something to brighten you up a bit; this is a rather special occasion. How stupid I am! Of course, there is the necklace—did you bring it with you?"

"Yes," The word had scarcely left Hester's lips before Marietta was unlocking a trunk. "You know I promised that I would never wear it in France, but there was not a word about Spain; do you think I might put it on?"

"Why, of course," rejoined Mrs. Tudor, with some asperity; "what else is it for?"

By this time the ornament had been taken out of its case, and was being clasped around Miss Forde's throat by Marietta's firm and eager fingers.

"Dear me, what a difference it makes!" exclaimed Mrs. Tudor, standing back a step. "Now, you really are en grande toilette. I never saw anything more splendid."

"Yes," agreed Hester. "It is quite magnificent, isn't it? Are you sure it is not too much?"

"No, not for a rich young woman," rejoined the old lady with emphasis; "the odd thing is, that you were requested not to wear it in France, when any one can see with half an eye that it is really Spanish! I should have thought Spain was the country to wear it in."

"But perhaps Jean Dominguez never dreamt that I should come here. I never supposed it either, and on Hester's possibly not; and if you were to be prevented from wearing the necklace in half the countries of Europe, it would not be much good to you, would it?"

Mrs. Tudor surveyed it critically; never in her long life had she seen such a truly royal jewel, and on Hester's white neck (which the pearls matched so admirably) the great deep emeralds shone, and the flashing diamonds sparkled as if things of life, conscious of their own importance.

"Well, my dear, we cannot waste our time gazing at your necklace," said the old lady. "We must be off at once, or we shall be late."

As they drove to the Castelar Palace Mrs. Tudor remarked:

"The Marquis and Marquesa de Castelar, their son, Don Fernando, and his wife; possibly the Duke de Balmora and one or two more. None of them speak a word of English, so you must say your French."

"Oh, but I really dare not," said Hester. "It is altogether too atrocious."

"All you want is practice—practice," said Mrs. Tudor. "If you don't talk, I'm afraid you will find it stupid. However, I can promise you a good dinner, and you will see an historical Spanish family, and a Spanish interior, such a quaint rambling old place—miles of rooms, and the stables under the dining-room. These Castelars are of the bluest of blue blood, and I lead the women, anyway—such terribly dull formal lives, for a Castelar must live up to a famous past."

"That at least is one disagreeable thing that is spared me," said Hester. "I am, in a way, my own ancestor. I know nothing of my forbears or their past."

"Your forbears were gentlefolk," said Mrs. Tudor. "your mother a Bothwell of Burnley! Oh, you cannot shuffle off your ancestors so easily, and pretend to be a nobody, and anyway, if you did, no one would believe you."

"Especially when I am wearing my splendid necklace," rejoined Hester, with a laugh.

SO SAD.

BROKER QUIZZED BY CREDITORS.

HIS "GENERAL ACCOUNT" SERVES FRED DORR WELL.

Bankrupt Suffers Several Lapses of Memory Under the Cross-examination of Foreman, Judge Gray, Concerning a Transaction in Pennsylvania Railroad Stock.

Thirty creditors and representatives of creditors of Fred Dorre, the bankrupt stock broker, whose liabilities are nearly half a million, attended the meeting at the office of Referee Lynn Helm, in the Los Angeles Trust building yesterday afternoon. They all wanted a "look in" on the proceedings.

There was no opposition to the election of Carroll Allen, who has been a temporary receiver, as permanent trustee for the creditors, and his choice was unanimous. By agreement his bond was increased from $25,000 to $50,000.

When Referee Helm asked for those who wished to interrogate Dorre about his assets, Judge W. A. Gray, representing the claim of Homer Laughlin, Sr., for $250,000, due from a sale of 100 half-shares of Pennsylvania Railroad made by Dorre July 18, asked a number of questions. He wanted to know what Dorre did with the money. All he found out was the rather vague information that it had gone "in the general account."

DORR'S MEMORY RAN.

"Did you sell 100 shares of Pennsylvania for Homer Laughlin on or about July 18?" asked the judge.

"I do not remember," answered Dorre. "By a systematic system of interrogatories, Gray finally, with the aid of Dorre's accounts, disclosed the fact that the stock had been sold through Harris, Winthrop & Co. in New York, and more proceeds of the sale credited to Dorre. But Dorre never got the money, except in the "general account." Further questioning seemed to satisfy Judge Gray that it is still in the "general account."

Mr. Catudal, who had had some transactions with Dorre in July, asked questions which hinted that Dorre had run a grain bucket shop, and not a brokerage business. Dorre asserted that all Catudal's orders had been executed on the Board of Trade in Chicago.

As no one else seemed ready to interrogate Dorre, Referee Helm continued the hearing for a week, when Dorre will again be ready to answer interrogatories.

EXPERT'S REPORT FILED.

Receiver Allen's 500-page report from the expert, C. W. Roome, was filed with the referee yesterday. It will be subject to examination by the creditors and may furnish the basis for more direct questions next Tuesday.

Among the creditors present yesterday was Capt. H. H. Norwood of San Francisco, who had Dorre arrested here two months ago on a charge of felony embezzlement. It was alleged that he had failed to deliver some stocks purchased for him on a charge of felony embezzlement. The charge against Dorre comes up again today in San Francisco, but it is understood it will go over until November.

Dorre and his manager, Maurice Vaughan, are to appear today in Justice Sumner's court for the setting of their case on the complaint of W. T. Coatsworth, who charges them with embezzling $5000 from Coatsworth for 100 shares of Atchafalpa common.

EVENTS IN LOCAL SOCIETY.

ALTHOUGH marked by extreme simplicity, the wedding, last evening of Mrs. Florence Rivers Stoddard and Joseph D. Radford, which was celebrated at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. A. Rivers of West Sixth street, was one of the most interesting of the season.

Mrs. H. S. Kneidler.

was married from an outing in San Francisco, where many interesting functions were given in her honor.

Her husband is associated with the German-American Savings Bank. Mrs. Radford's gown was a masterpiece of silver gray, with a long train.

Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Kneidler of West Twenty-third street have returned from San Francisco. While in the north, they received much social attention.

bridge, while intoxicated, had shot through his home window and threatened to kill him. Burbridge was put under bonds to keep the peace.

As to the ownership of the ranch Meserve says it does not belong to the Burbridges. Some months ago, before Burbridge got out with his shotgun and was put under peace bonds, Meserve says Mrs. Burbridge went to her husband's office, broke it open and took a deed which her husband had executed to her for the ranch.

NORTHERNERS BUYING DAISY.

San Joaquin "Wild Cat" Has 'Frisco Market.

Stock Sales Pick up 'Around
City on the Bay.

New Companies Are Listed:
Petroleum Notes.

Excitement is evidently stirred up in San Francisco by something that has happened or has been reported regarding the Daisy well, a wildcat, located a mile from Midway, a little Espee station between Livermore and Tracy in San Joaquin county. It is about seven miles from where the Standard has decided to do some wildcat work, and has acquired land in Alameda county. For some time it has been rumored that there was oil found in the hole.

The Daisy stock is listed at San Francisco, and the exchange sheet shows that blocks of several hundred up to 1000 shares have been sold daily at prices from 25 to 31 cents. The higher figure, the highest yet, was reached on Monday, when two blocks of 1000 shares each changed hands. It is a gamble, of course. It has attracted no public attention and is not listed here as yet.

The latest sheets of the California Oil and Stock Exchange (San Francisco) indicate quite a pick-up in oils in the northern metropolitan. On Monday the sales were: 300 Claremont, $1.40; 500 Graciosa, $1.40; 3444 Occidental, $1.40; 2000 same, $1.40; 100 Peetee, $1.40; 2000 Daisy, $1.40; 2000 Independence, $1.40; 200 Associated, $1.40; 100 Sterling, $1.40.

It is notable that both Los Angeles and San Francisco now quote Associated at about the same figure, viz., $1.40, although a few weeks since there was a wide margin between the prices South and North, according to published quotations, Los Angeles reporting $1.50 and $1.10, while San Francisco gave $1.25.

The Euclid and Globe, Los Angeles companies operating at Kern River, listed their stock on Monday at San Francisco. The first has been on the Los Angeles list for some time. Four others were also listed, viz., the Sacramento, an oil well at the Kern River company; the Turner, a Coalina concern drilling two wildcat wells on 2-20-15, away over on the east side of Coalina, south of the Limited's well on 25-19-34, and surrounded by development now in progress, but prospective in character; the Gypsy and Mountain Girl, Fresno companies, both operating in Midway.

Standard Refuses to Sell.

Ranchers and others in the country between Bakersfield and the bay are unable to buy fuel oil from the Standard at its pumping stations. Some of them are getting it from the Associated line or were not long since. When a representative of The Times was at the colony of McFarland, north of Bakersfield, a tank wagon was loading at the Associated pumping and tank station there. The driver said he had been hauling from the Standard station for a long time, but that the company had refused to sell any more, and he had been told by those in charge of the station that it was due to the fear of being declared by law a common carrier. It is admitted in Standard circles that no oil is now being sold at pipe line stations, although a few years ago it was understood that regular agencies would be established at all towns to sell fuel brought in by the pipe line. What authority there was for this announcement it is impossible to say, but the agencies were never established. The popular belief seems to favor the theory that fear of being made a "common carrier" is the reason for the Standard's action, but this is not admitted by any one in the company. The Associated did not seem to have any such fear when selling oil at McFarland.

Drilling Near Hauser.

The N. D. H. (No Dry Holes) Oil Company has reached a depth of over 200 feet in its first well near Hauser station across the track of the Los Angeles Pacific from the other end at Sherman Junction. Its work is attracting much attention, as its success will extend the field in a new direction. The N. D. H. is a local stock company floated in this city.

In Monterey County.

The likelihood is that the local men interested in the Topo Valley Oil and Development Company that started and drilled to 170 feet near the Standard's wells in San Benito county, just across the Monterey line, will not resume operations immediately, but will await the outcome of the big company's probing. At present, no one is drilling east of the Salinas River except the Standard and Union and the Eureka, the latter east of Bradley. Many are waiting upon the Standard's work.

SOLDIERS' HOME FIRE.

SOLDIERS' HOME, Oct. 26.—A fire, which originated between floor and ceiling under the kitchen range of the non-commissioned officers' mess hall this morning, created excitement today. The brigade was promptly on hand, and almost before the veterans at large had ceased crowding on the scene, had the fire well under control. The damage was slight. John W. Glaze of Home Co. R, was knocked down on a street in Sawtelle late last evening by a wagon driven by a careless lad. He was brought by the home ambulance to the hospital, where it was found he had suffered nothing more serious than an abrasion on the side of the head. The surgeon says he will be out in a day or two.

CORONA.

CORONA, Oct. 26.—David B. Ward, president of the Southern California Assembly at Long Beach, is here conferring with Rev. B. B. Jacques, secretary of the assembly, regarding the work of that organization. Mr. Ward is also Sunday-school missionary superintendent for the Baptists of Southern California. The prohibitionists are planning for a big rally here this evening in the opera-house. H. Carter has arrived here from Seattle. James L. Davis, Worshipful Master of the local Masonic lodge, has returned from San Francisco, where he attended Grand Lodge. Mrs. Sumner Hillings was returned from a visit in Los Angeles.

SAN PEDRO.

SAN PEDRO, Oct. 26.—Mayor Walton received a letter today from C. W. Cook, secretary of the American Hawaiian Steamship Company, at San Francisco, stating that he would arrive here the latter part of October to look over the harbor facilities and the advisability of making San Pedro a port of call for steamships of the line.

Successful Men of Clear Vision Give Points for Taft to the Doubtful

least four years of good business, such as this country has never experienced in the past, and of avoiding the return of the miserable economic conditions which were one of the productions of the last Democratic administration. The fact is that viewing the election from a business standpoint, the choice of a business and laboring man should vote for Taft on November 3 for his own welfare and the welfare of the country at large.

GEORGE R. HOTT,
Secretary, Jones & Ryder Land Co.

JAMES H. ADAMS & CO.

LOS ANGELES, Oct. 14.—We believe that the election of Mr. Taft would be quickly followed by general business activity, giving employment to the unemployed at remunerative wages, and call into use timid and inactive capital.

JAMES H. ADAMS & CO.

AMALGAMATED OIL CO.

LOS ANGELES, Oct. 14.—This nation, the largest business corporation in the world, wants a trained man, fitted to be a good manager. His administration must be honest, fearless, and he must have experience to conduct its affairs.

The people, realizing Mr. Taft's bold yet prudent and high-minded public career, know he has, so far, done all that any one could for his country. He possesses the qualities that win. "He who succeeds must first be successful."

Mr. Bryan's doctrine, when worked out to a logical conclusion, as applied to business methods, prove to be entirely impracticable. The final argument advanced for Mr. Bryan, after all others fail, is "that he is honest."

BURTON E. GREEN.

M. N. AVERY.

LOS ANGELES, Oct. 14.—The candidate for President of the United States, the great country which should continue to occupy the first place of all the nations of the earth, should be a man of positive character, large capacity and proven practical ability.

The best evidence of a man's character, capacity and ability is to be found in the record of his past. We cannot afford to elect to a position of such responsibility a man whose record is stained by vicious and impracticable schemes, fallacious theories and failure to accomplish his undertakings.

and conveniently shift from one position to another in the hope of advancing his political fortunes. He is a broad minded, practical man of affairs, whose personality strongly appeals to the conservative business and industrial elements of our people, who are confident that under his administration there will be no radical and violent changes in government and economic policies.

The election of Judge Taft as our Chief Executive will assure a wise and economical administration of our public affairs, restore and sustain business confidence, and rapidly bring about a more prosperous era than we have heretofore enjoyed in which all of the people will share, and the Oklahoma idea will cease to be a menace to the national welfare.

BRADNER W. LEE.

PACIFIC COAST SYRUP CO.

LOS ANGELES, Oct. 14.—Replying to your request as to our opinion of this year's Presidential campaign, from a commercial standpoint, and from a general viewpoint, we would favor the election of William H. Taft for President of the United States.

Specifically, our reasons for supporting Mr. Taft are as follows:

He represents an administration which has been demonstrated during the term of our two preceding Presidents to be an efficient endeavor to accomplish the greatest good for the greatest number, commercially and otherwise.

It is further obvious to us that a President thoroughly in harmony with the Republican administration and its representation in the houses of Congress would accomplish more good for the public than would a President not in harmony.

From a purely commercial standpoint, we believe that the election of Mr. Taft will more quickly restore the country to a normal state, such as it was in preceding the unsettled conditions of the last year.

Yours very truly,

LOS ANGELES, Oct. 14.—Returning from the East recently, I was a passenger on a through train en route to New York to Chicago. It was not the millionaires' special, the patrons of which might be reasonably supposed to be hostile to Mr. Taft, but a train of the business men of the country.

Mr. Taft will more quickly restore the country to a normal state, such as it was in preceding the unsettled conditions of the last year.

Yours very truly,

PACIFIC COAST SYRUP CO.

DR. WEST HUGHES.

LOS ANGELES, Oct. 14.—Returning from the East recently, I was a passenger on a through train en route to New York to Chicago. It was not the millionaires' special, the patrons of which might be reasonably supposed to be hostile to Mr. Taft, but a train of the business men of the country.

Mr. Taft will more quickly restore the country to a normal state, such as it was in preceding the unsettled conditions of the last year.

Yours very truly,

PACIFIC COAST SYRUP CO.

hand, he went there, and in a short time, and without any fuss, things began to move more smoothly—because he made the populace understand our intentions in a way that was plain and simple. When friction appears in the Panama Canal project he smoothed matters over by going there, looking over the ground and arranging matters satisfactorily to all concerned, with the result that the dirt is flying faster than the balls had all been de-manded, and the project is in fact, Mr. Taft might be termed the "Great American Smoother."

I believe that the greatest good to the greatest number will be best conserved by electing Mr. Taft to the Presidency, for the advancement of anything and everything that is American, and I for one would much rather hold fast to that which is good than take a chance on the unknown.

M. C. NEUNER.

LOS ANGELES, Oct. 14.—Of the eighty millions of people or so who inhabit this country, the man fitted for the office should be chosen President. At the present time William H. Taft is the man in sight—there may be others, but they are not in the line of vision. He was eminent and wise as a judge in the administration of justice. He has been eminent and wise in the administration of the great office of President of the United States.
